BOOMING OKLAHOMA.

The New Territory Making Good Progress.

A Missing Naval Paymaster Found on a Spree.

Hawes, the Birmingham Butcher, Sentenced to Swing.

The Florida Supreme Court Rules That a State Cannot Reduce Railway Rates Below Operating Expenses.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—[By the Associated Press.] The following telegram has been received by the Adjutant-General from Gen. Merritt, dated yesterday:

"Everything is quiet in Oklahoma Territory. I anticipate no further trouble in the country from any cause, but will in the event of any disturbance return at once to Oklahoma. I propose later to withdraw part of the troops in the Territory."

Postmaster-General Wanamaker today received a telegram from Postmaster Flynn at Guthrie, Oklahoma, in which he says that the daily sale of postage stamps at his office amounts to about $50; that the eleven clerks in the office are kept busy from 5 o'clock a.m. until 7 at night, and when the mail is ready for delivery there is usually a line of men half a mile long waiting for their mail. About 3000 letters and 1000 newspapers are delivered daily. There are five banks and six newspapers in operation in the new town.

Land Commissioner Stockslager today received a report from Inspector Hobbs at Guthrie, which shows that during the first week 450 entriesand 42 notices of contest were made.

TRAIN'S ROT.

His Purpose to Get Rid of it by Fasting.

NEW YORK, May 3.—[By the Associated Press.] George Francis Train passed the fourteenth day of total abstinence from food and drink except water and a little weak lemonade. Yesterday afternoon he rose late and went for his usual Turkish bath. He is growing perceptibly thinner and says his weight is now only 174. He pinches up the loose bronzed skin which begins to hang with a suggestion of ghastly emptiness about his chin and on his slender hands. In reply to a question as to how his head felt he asked another: "How do my eyes look?"

"As though you slept badly."

"Well, I don't sleep so well as I did, and I am aware the depletion of my system is beginning to tell upon my eyesight.

Train was sitting indoors, wrapped in a heavy fur-trimmed coat, yet he shivered in a flood of May sunshine streaming in at the windows.

He clinched his hand tightly, then unclosing the palm he called attention to the proper checks.

"You see my circulation is a good deal better than that of the average man. I watch all my symptoms closely, and the observations I am now taking may be of considerable value to medical scientists. I am not, as some people declare, trying to commit suicide. I am not fasting to die, but wasting to live. I believe we are on the eve of a great pestilence, and I shall be able to meet it better if I get rid of what is known as superfluous adipose tissue, but is in reality nothing but rot. I have not put a limit to the period of my fast. I don't feel moved to break it yet. That is all. I may eat tomorrow, I may fast for 100 days."

PATRIOTISM AFLOAT.

Centennial Day Observed in the Middle of the Atlantic.

NEW YORK, May 3.—[By the Associated Press.] The few American citizens who were unable to take part in the centennial either on this or the other side of the Atlantic, because they were in mid-ocean, did not after all permit April 30th to pass without a celebration. There were a number of prominent Americans on board the steamship Lahn, which arrived this morning from Bremen, and these were the patriotic sons of their country, who celebrated in mid-ocean. On April 30th, Centennial day, the Lahn was a little over half way across the Atlantic. The day had been the topic of conversation in the cabin, and great things had been promised, so it came about that the first thing the American passengers heard when they awoke on the morning of April 30th was "America." The magnificent steamship was decked out in the greatest glory; flags waved from every available inch of rigging, and the bridge was a feast for the eyes. The early part of the day was spent quietly. At dinner in the main saloon American flags were distributed. After dinner the ceremonies were opened by prayer. Then followed music, and then speeches were in order.

RAILWAY RATES.

A Florida Court Rules Against Their Enforced Reduction.

PENSACOLA (Fla.), May 3.—[By the Associated Press.] The Supreme Court of Florida has rendered a decision of vital importance to railroad corporations. The Board of Railroad Commissioners in 1887 fixed rates for the Pensacola and Atlantic Railroad Company, which the company asserted were too low to enable it to earn enough revenue to pay its operating expenses, and it refused to adopt the rates fixed by the commission. The State brought suit against the railroad to recover penalties, and obtained judgments in the lower court for several thousand dollars. The railroad company appealed, and the Supreme Court now reverses the judgment of the lower court, holding that a reduction by the Legislature or commission of the rates of a railroad to a point too low to permit it to earn operating expenses is a deprivation of property without due process of law and without just compensation, and is confiscation, and in conflict with the State and Federal Constitutions. This is the first decision of the kind by a court of last resort.

ON A SPREE.

Smith, the Missing Paymaster of the Essex, Discovered.

NEW YORK, May 3.—[By the Associated Press.] Henry R. Smith, paymaster of the United States corvette Essex, who disappeared with a sum of money, a portion of the salary of the crew of the vessel, has been found. He is now at his mother's house in West Fourteenth street too ill to give any account of himself or the $1200 which he had when he disappeared. It is learned that he went to his mother's house last Wednesday night in a partly crazy condition, the result of heavy drinking. That same night he tried to commit suicide, but was prevented by his attendants and has since made no further attempt on his life.

The wife of the paymaster arrived here today from San Francisco. It is said about the Smith residence that he has had some misunderstanding with his wife and that this and her expected arrival here were the causes of his disappearance and rash action.

"In grinding the spring's cane, sugar planters find that the deficit in the yield is greater than was at first anticipated.

PREPARED FOR FIGHTS.

THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ATHLETIC CLUB IN TRIM.

It Has Fitted Up a Room at Considerable Expense, and Will Open the Doors to Bruisers—Dempsey Here—A $3000 Purse.

California now has two fighting clubs. These organizations are not altogether a new invention, for they have been in high favor among the sporting fraternity of the East, and especially in New York city. The San Francisco club was organized only a few years ago, but it has succeeded in smuggling in some good fights, and as only members of the club are admitted when a fight is in progress, the boys have managed to keep the minions of the law at a safe distance. These clubs are incorporated under the State law, and are managed by a board of directors, which is bound to see that the law is not violated.

The Los Angeles club was organized only a few weeks ago as the Southern California Athletic Club, with headquarters in the old Merced Hall. The officers are: Dr. K. D. Wise, president; Henry T. Rodman, vice-president; E. J. Niles, secretary; Dr. Worthington, treasurer. The directors are: Joe Manning, R. J. Northam, C. C. Jesurum, A. Berry, George Flint and J. A. Perry.

The club has a membership of about 100, and has spent about $1500 in fitting up the old Merced Hall. It is arranged for prize-fighting, and the chances are that some of the most notable matches ever made in this State will soon be announced.

The first battle will be fought about the middle of June, between Joe Ellingsworth and Geo. Le Blanche, for a purse of $1500, the loser to take $200 or $300 as the principals may decide. The match is already made and Ellingsworth started from New York for Los Angeles yesterday. The "pugs" will be kept in training six weeks and will then fight with two-ounce gloves, Queensbury rules.

The general belief around town is that some of the bloodiest fights ever fought on the coast will be fought in the Merced Hall; but the club has adopted the bylaws of the San Francisco club, and if they work under the law as they have promised to do in their incorporation papers, there will be no trouble.

JACK DEMPSEY IN THE CITY.

Jack Dempsey, the champion middle-weight pugilist of the world, arrived on the 7:15 train from San Francisco yesterday evening. He was met at the Southern Pacific depot by the directors of the Southern California Athletic Club and the sporting editor of THE TIMES.

Dempsey is at present under engagement to the Harry Williams Specialty Company, giving exhibitions of sparring with Denny Costigan. They appear at San Diego next week, and Jack expects to be back in this city about the 18th or 19th of the month.

The champion middle-weight looked a trifle pale, but as this is his normal appearance, increased doubtless by a long journey, the sporting editor was not surprised to hear that he is in the best possible condition. His present weight is about 148 pounds, and as this is very near his fighting weight he will require but little hard work to prepare him for a battle.

On his arrival up town he was surrounded by a great throng of sporting men, all anxious to shake hands with a man who has made for himself such a fair reputation in the prize ring. In reply to a question by the reporter, Dempsey said that he was prepared to meet any man in his class who would issue a challenge backed by a suitable forfeit. He moreover declared himself perfectly willing to fight before the Southern California Athletic Club in this city, should it decide to offer a suitable purse. When asked if he thought Joe Ellingsworth would do as his opponent for such a purse, Jack grinned and thought it would be a good fight. The reporter then asked him whether he would meet Bill Goode under the auspices of the Los Angeles Club, and on being informed that Bill Goode is middle-weight champion of England and that the club will endeavor to bring him here, he said he was perfectly satisfied to meet him if the purse offered was large enough.

A $3000 PURSE.

The directors of the Southern California Athletic Club met yesterday evening and decided to offer a $3000 purse for a fight to a finish, Marquis of Queensbury rules, between Jack Dempsey and Joe Ellingsworth of New York. The club already has Ellingsworth under engagement, and should Dempsey accept its offer, it will sign articles on behalf of the New York man immediately.

NAVAL ACADEMY.

Arrangements for Examining Candidates for Cadetships.

To the Editor of The Times: There being a vacancy in the United States Naval Academy from the Sixth Congressional District of California, and the Hon. Secretary of the Navy having called upon me to recommend a candidate for appointment, will you please give notice that candidates for this appointment may appear at San Buenaventura, before the following-named board, to wit: Samuel T. Black, Principal of Public Schools; John T. Stow, County Surveyor, and William E. Shepherd, attorney-at-law, for examination as to proficiency and qualification. The nomination will be made upon the recommendation of this committee as to the merits of the candidates, preference being given to sons of veterans who served in the war for the suppression of the rebellion, other things being equal. The candidate must not be under 15 nor over 20 years of age when examined for admission, and must be an actual resident of this Congressional District. Accepted candidates for admission will be required to report at the Naval Academy for a final examination before admission.

My recommendation for admission to the academy must be made prior to the 1st day of July next.

WM. VANDEVER,
M. C. Sixth Cong. Dist., California.

The Board of Examiners named in the foregoing will hold a competitive examination on Friday, May 31, 1889, at the Plaza school, Ventura, commencing at 1 p.m.

Each applicant will be required to file with said board, before entering on the examination, the certificate of a reputable physician covering the points required by Regulation X, which is as follows:

Candidates will be examined physically by a board composed of three medical officers of the navy. Any one of the following conditions will be sufficient to cause the rejection of a candidate, viz:

Feeble constitution, inherited or acquired; retarded development; impaired general health; decided cachexia, diathesis or predisposition. Any disease, deformity or result of injury that would impair efficiency, such as weak or disordered intellect; cutaneous or communicable disease; unnatural curvature of spine, torticollis or other deformity; inefficiency of either of the extremities or large articulations from any cause; epilepsy or other convulsions within five years; impaired vision, disease of the organs of vision, imperfect color sense; impaired hearing or disease of the ear; chronic nasal catarrh, ozena, polypi or great enlargement of the tonsils; impediment of speech to such an extent as to impair efficiency in the performance of duty; disease of heart or lungs or decided indications of liability to cardiac or pulmonary affections; hernia or undescended testis; varicocele, sarcocele, hydrocele, stricture, fistula, hemorrhoids, or varicose veins of the lower limbs; disease of the genito-urinary organs; chronic ulcers, ingrowing nails, large bunions, or other deformity of feet.

Attention will also be paid to the stature of the candidate, and no one manifestly under size for his age will be received at the academy. In the case of doubt about the physical condition of the candidate, any marked deviation from the usual standard of height or weight will add materially to the consideration for rejection. Five feet will be the minimum height.

The subjects at the competitive examination will be the same as those the appointee will be examined in by the Academic Board at the academy when he presents himself for admission. These subjects are reading, penmanship, spelling, arithmetic, geography, grammar, United States history, and algebra through simple equations of two or more unknown quantities. All the examinations, except in reading, will be written. We are requested by Gen. Vandever to state there is no vacancy at West Point at present, but that immediately after the June examinations of 1889, the Adjutant-General of the United States Army will invite him to nominate a successor to the cadet at present representing this district. Due notice will be given of the examination for said appointment.

INSANE ASYLUM.

The Commissioners Taking in Beaumont.

Dr. E. S. Wilkins of the State Insane Asylum at Napa, and Messrs. Joseph Brown of San Bernardino, James Kerr of San Jacinto, and M. S. Severance of Los Angeles, who constitute a majority of the commissioners appointed to locate the Southern California Asylum, met yesterday morning at Beaumont and spent the entire day inspecting that locality. They were escorted about by H. C. Sigler and F. C. Howes of this city, visiting the various ranches, cañons, mountain streams and other attractions found in that portion of the San Gorgonio Valley. They sniffed the climate, imbibed the pure water, and feasted at the Beaumont Hotel on mammoth strawberries and other luxuries.

The appropriations of $350,000 for the asylum contemplates the use of 100 acres of land for the institution, but Dr. Wilkins thinks there should be about 1000 acres to provide such grounds as will be required to make the institution commensurate with the necessities of the country. The commissioners and also Dr. Wilkins were much pleased with what they saw of Beaumont.

The other members of the commission, J. K. Fisher of Santa Barbara and K. P. Grant of Ventura, visited Beaumont on the 14th of last month.

Mr. Judson of Beaumont and Ralph E. Hoyt of this city accompanied the party in yesterday's round of investigations.

The commissioners went to San Bernardino last evening, where they will remain till Monday. Their work of investigating locations is virtually completed, and about the 15th inst. they will all get together and decide the important question.

EAST-SIDE NEWS.

The East Los Angeles Congregational Church people have taken a new departure in the way of an addition to their church building, to be used for a kitchen, reading-room, gymnasium, bathrooms, etc. The building is nearly completed, and next week the ladies of the church propose to dedicate the work by holding a fair, the proceeds of which will be used in furnishing the reading-room.

The men of the church have organized a club, and call it the Phillips Club, in honor of their pastor, and will take especial charge of the gymnasium, which, when completed and furnished, will be open to all who wish to join the club.

The elevated bridge over the railroad tracks and the river at Downey avenue is now about half completed.

Some of the good people of the East Side have lately been reminding themselves of with what close attention they listened to a lecture from that apostle of social purity, Rev. James, last summer.

Already the prospect of the speedy completion and extension of the cable road on Downey avenue is being anticipated by some of our enterprising business men, who are contemplating the erection of neat business blocks on the avenue.

The rumor that a new bank was to be started over here seems to be without foundation.

A DENIAL.

EAST LOS ANGELES, May 3.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] An erroneous statement appears in this morning's TIMES from your East Los Angeles news gatherer, in which he makes it appear that the eruption in the East Los Angeles Board of Trade grew out of a "reluctance on the part of some of Mr. Van Dusen's friends to allow an investigation of alleged irregularities practiced by that gentleman in securing his election to Council."

The article is calculated to hold Mr. Van Dusen up to public disadvantage to those who are not familiar with the facts in the case.

Now the facts are, Mr. Van Dusen is guiltless of all "irregularities" in his election except, perhaps, his personal popularity, and that certainly is "irregular," compared with the standing of the gentlemen who desired so much to stand where Mr. Van Dusen is today.

It might seem a little "irregular," too, for a man to announce himself a candidate for office only three or four days before the caucus, and then receive more than double the votes of the four other candidates combined, who had worked like beavers for from one to four weeks to secure their nomination. So the sum and substance of the whole thing is this: That at least two of the defeated candidates in the Republican caucus can justly be charged with all the undesirable and uncalled-for strife and dissension that have afflicted our Board of Trade for the last three months, and they deserve to be shown up in their true light, which they will get if they persist in their attempt to throw the responsibility of any controversy on the shoulders of a one-armed soldier, whom every man, woman and child who knows him delights to honor, except, forsooth, the big fourteen who are striving so hard to resurrect the now defunct Board of Trade.

EAST SIDE.

A BIG STRIKE.

HENRY T. GAGE, ESQ., WINS A $750,000 CASE.

A Decision of the Supreme Court Granting Him a Portion of Warner's Ranch—A Claim Handed Down from J. J. Warner.

The friends of Henry T. Gage will be pleased to learn that he has suddenly become a wealthy man. Mr. Gage's good luck has grown out of an old Mexican-grant suit, which was started in 1882, entitled H. T. Gage vs. John G. Downey. It seems that many years ago Don Juan J. Warner was granted a big tract of land in San Diego county, which has since been known as Warner's ranch. The homestead was fixed on what is known as the Mora Moss League, which is near the center of the ranch, and consists of something less than 5000 acres. This tract is well watered, and is considered the flower of the ranch. When the ranch passed into the hands of Gov. Downey, there was a flaw in the title of the Mora Moss League, and, through some family connections, the disputed title fell into the hands of Mr. Gage. He attempted to settle the matter outside of the courts, but his propositions were ignored, and he brought suit. The matter dragged along for some time, when it found its way to the Supreme Court. Yesterday a decision was reached; the Court held that Mr. Gage's claim is genuine, and awarded him the league claimed.

The decision is rough on Gov. Downey, for the reason that the value of the rest of his ranch is seriously diminished if separated from the Mora Moss League, and if Mr. Gage wishes to be mean about it he can make the Governor pay almost any price for it. The Governor has held this tract at $150 an acre, which would give Mr. Gage about $750,000, but the land is not so valuable, and would probably not bring more than $75 an acre.

In conversation with John R. Berry of San Diego, yesterday, that gentleman said to a TIMES reporter:

"The land is quite valuable, and I have been told that it can be sold for $100 an acre without any trouble. There will be a railroad through the ranch very soon, and that will greatly increase the value of the property. Mr. Gage is a mightly lucky man, and has secured a fine piece of property."

It is one of the most important cases that has been decided in the Supreme Court for some time past.

Stephen M. White is counsel for Gov. Downey, and does not know yet exactly what he will do. It is doubtful whether the case can be taken to the United States Supreme Court, and if that be so, there is but little more to be done other than to hand the land over to Mr. Gage.

When the Governor learned of his loss yesterday afternoon he was all broken up. He cannot believe that any court could be so blind as to render such a decision. He has always thought a great deal of the Warner ranch, and is fond of going down there every few months for a stay of a week or two. This decision will make quite a hole in his fortune, but he is estimated to be worth $2,000,000, and, as he has no one but his wife and himself, the chances are that they will continue to live very comfortably.

When Mr. Gage got hold of the claim he was a poor young attorney with a very small practice, but his legal training told him that he had a good case, and he made up his mind to push it for all that was out. He has spent about $6000 in litigation, and that is about all he has spent, but he has put in a great deal of hard work, and considers that he has earned his fee. He was seen yesterday, but did not seem inclined to talk. He was not at all puffed up over his good luck, and when questioned as to the nature of the decision, he said:

"I don't know a thing about the nature or the decision, and I don't suppose I will know anything until it reaches me day after tomorrow. I don't know whether the Court gives me the whole 5000 acres or only one quarter, for it is possible that either clause might have been inserted in the decision. No, sir, I don't care much about the decision, for I have enough without it, but I have taken a good deal of professional pride in the case."

The decision was quite a surprise to the attorneys about town, for a majority of those who have watched the case never believed that Mr. Gage would win.

A New Thing in Motive Power.

W. P. Valentine of Cleveland, O., is the inventor and patentee of a device by which it is claimed that a new motion in the propulsion of machinery is produced, doubling the speed of all kinds of machines to which it is practically applicable—some dozen in number. The inventor states that a joint-stock company has been formed in California (the subscribers being principally in Los Angeles and San Francisco) for the purpose of establishing in this city a manufactory of the new invention. Their purpose is to commence on the heads of sewing machines, and later on to extend the manufacture to other kinds of machinery. When the invention comes into practical use, the fact will be noted in these columns, as the claim set up by the inventor is important, if true.

Park Commissioners.

The Park Commission met last night in Mayor Hazard's office. A number of demands were passed and committee of one, in the person of Sutherland Hutton, was appointed to select trees for Elysian Park. The commissioners then discussed the Workman Park on Boyle Heights. It seems that the commission at its last meeting instructed the secretary to write to Mr. Workman and ask him if the park had ever been dedicated to the city. Mr. Workman replied that it had not, but he was favorable to the scheme and thought he would be able to donate a portion of it if not the whole thing. Assistant Superintendent Bard was instructed to take charge of Prospect Park and to commence grading, etc., at once.

Does It Pay?

Three-fourths of our people are troubled with dyspepsia or liver complaint in some form or other, which by nature of the disease has a depressing influence on the mind or body, preventing them from thinking or acting clearly in any matter of importance. Indigestion, coming up of food after eating, dyspepsia, sick headache, acidity of the stomach, or any derangement of the stomach or liver (upon which the whole action of our system depends) are speedily and effectually overcome by the use of Green's August Flower. The most stubborn cases have yielded to its influence, as thousands of letters received will testify. The immense sale of this medicine is another guarantee of its merits (over a million and a half bottles sold last year). So we ask, will it pay you to suffer from any of the above diseases when you can have immediate relief in the AUGUST FLOWER? Three doses will prove its worth. It is sold by all druggists and general dealers in the world.

THE Grand Jury is likely to stir things up, and make some people shiver.

THE Pekin (China) Gazette will soon celebrate its thousandth anniversary. It is the Methuselah among newspapers.

IT is said that 90,000 Americans will visit the Paris Exposition. What a lot of American money the French will handle this year!

FOREPAUGH and Barnum have divided the territory of the United States between them for two years. This is the first Circus Trust.

THE general offices of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Company will shortly be removed from Topeka to Chicago. The financial headquarters will remain in Boston.

GEN. CLINTON B. FISK has had enough of the Third Party. He says that all friends of temperance should work with the Republicans. Glad to welcome you, General!

THE deputy marshals who took advantage of their presence in Oklahoma to seize upon some of the best lots have been called upon by the Government for an explanation.

THAT was rather a small business of the Police Commissioners to deduct seven days from Officer Bracewell's pay, during his arrest, when it was afterwards admitted that there was absolutely no reason for his suspension.

IT is to be hoped that "blood" and "pedigree" will not be the sole topic of interest in New York, now that the centennial is a thing of the past. What awful snobbishness we democratic Americans do sometimes exhibit!

GOV. WATERMAN has expressed himself sensibly for once, at any rate. Looking upon the great throng of happy children in Golden Gate Park on May 1st, the Governor was led to announce: "It's no use now to try to convince me that marriage is a failure." Is there anything so eloquently convincing as happy childhood?

THE Indianapolis Journal, while in favor of civil-service reform—that is, the reform that refuses to turn out all the employés of the Government every four years to make room for new ones—calls attention to the fact that there is one evil in connection with this policy which must be patent to every intelligent observer, and that is the unavoidable tendency of the system to establish an office-holding class.

IT is estimated that from 10,000 to 12,000 children gathered in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, to enjoy the Mayday festivities, amid the unrivaled beauty of the place. What would it not be worth to Los Angeles, if she had as highly improved and extensive a park as the Golden Gate Park, which is the crowning glory of San Francisco, and one of its greatest attractions; and what is there to hinder this Southern metropolis from having such a possession?

THE frightful outrage brought to light in Chicago by the casual presence of a reporter in an insane asylum leads one to inquire how many similar outrages may occur without ever being exposed. Our insane asylums should be placed under more strict supervision; should be more frequently inspected; should be more open to the light of day. Everyone who has a friend or relative in an asylum should make it his business to secure legislative reform of this description.

WE observe in the columns of the decaying boodle organ a measly slur on THE TIMES in connection with the subject of county division. Coming from a notorious scamp and boodler, who has been obsequiously offering to sell his cheap support at a cheap price to the separatists, the insinuation against this journal lacks pertinency and force. The position of THE TIMES is not in doubt, and its columns are not for sale. . . . You won't do, "Smoothy;" you won't do! And the Trombone won't do!

THE NINTH-STREET BRIDGE.

As will be seen from our local columns, there is a dispute in the city government regarding the completion of the Ninth-street bridge, which the Street Superintendent very coolly recommends should be abandoned. In yesterday's TIMES Mr. A. F. Kercheval very pertinently answered such a suggestion. He showed that the portion of the city which will benefit by the bridge has paid probably $50,000 in taxes, and never had $50 of the city funds before; that the expense of the approaches to the bridge would not be over $1500, at the most, and that the bridge will open up and make valuable for assessment, as well as other purposes, a portion of the city that has always been isolated and cut off from communication. The section in the neighborhood of the Ninth-street bridge will, before long, be covered with factories, lumber yards and machine shops. It does not look graceful for residents in sections which have received so much of the city's money to begrudge a desirable improvement of so inexpensive a character. Some people seem to take offense at anything that threatens to keep the city from moving down toward the University.

A HINT TO OFFICE-SEEKERS.

Notwithstanding the reports that there has been a great clearing-out of office-seekers from Washington, late advices go to show that the White House is still overrun by persistent seekers after preferment, who make the President's life miserable. If some of these men were wise, they would understand that, instead of advancing their interests by such personal persistence, they really lessen their chances. Here is what a Cabinet officer recently said to a correspondent on the subject:

"These gentlemen insist upon seeing the President and the members of the Cabinet as to their own cases, but it is ridiculous. One visit is better than a dozen, and I am not sure that no visit is not better than any visit. I suppose that I have been called upon in a single day by persons who have made statements as to 100 different applicants and as many different places. It is in every instance the same old story. You hear of names and 'backers,' and of local committees and of party services, and, of course, sometimes of fitness for the desired places; but it is all like a meaningless jingle that runs through the head. When the President tells the applicants to file their papers at the proper place, he means it. It would be sound policy for the applicant to do just what the President suggests, to make his papers as strong as he can, and to then retire from the White House. Personal interviews advance no man's claim. He may injure his chance by his persistence and his presence. At the end of a business day every Cabinet officer forgets the greater part of the things that have been said to him as to any particular place or person. The general catalogue of sound is in his ears, but he does not classify it, and does not care to do so. The appointments are ultimately made after the papers in each case are examined. It not infrequently has happened that the memory of the personal appearance of an applicant has dispelled the good effect which his papers might otherwise have produced. It is all a mistake for the office-seeker to infest the White House and the departments. He would arrive at his end just as soon and at far less expense and trouble if he would remain away, and in the case of failure—and it must happen in the great pressure for office that there will be more failures than successes—the applicant would find that it would be more economical for him to bear his disappointment at home."

THE BEET SUGAR INDUSTRY.

A few days ago the telegraph brought a report of an interview with Claus Spreckels, in which he stated his San Francisco company would soon be ready to build ten large beet sugar factories in this State, each to cost $500,000. This news opened the eyes of many of our citizens to the possibilities of the beet sugar industry. A further inkling of its importance may be gained from a perusal of a paper by A. H. Almy, in the Popular Science Monthly for May, on the "Growth of the Beet Sugar Industry." Few people probably are aware that more than half of the world's annual supply of sugar is now derived from the beet-root. Yet it is scarcely more than twenty years since this industry began to assume prominence and to be felt as an appreciable factor in the market. It is just about a score of years ago that Germany, finding her lands worn under a thousand years of tillage without rotation of crops, and unable to produce grain in competition with the rich prairies of America, established a system of excise duties to induce the farmer to enter into the growing of beets upon a larger scale, and gave bounties to attract capital into the construction of factories for the manufacture of beet sugar. These new conditions resulted in an enormous increase of sugar production. The German farmer gathered from twenty to twenty-five tons of beets from an acre, each ton yielding from one hundred and fifty to two hundred pounds of sugar, giving him three times the profit he had previously derived from the cultivation of grain, and leaving the land better prepared to receive the annual plant in its rotation with the beet. During the last decade great discoveries have been made in the cultivation of the root, and in the methods for the extraction of the sugar. In the early experiments, in the days of the first Napoleon, the extraction was only 1 per cent. Last year the average extraction under the new processes was 13 per cent. Other countries in continental Europe, stimulated by the example of Germany, have encouraged the beet-sugar industry. Austria produces now about half as much as Germany, and the product of France and Russia is also considerable. In 1885 the total production of beet sugar was 2,546,000 tons, and in the same year the entire production of cane sugar was only 2,260,100 tons. Last year Germany produced 1,300,000 tons of beet sugar as compared with 1,155,000 tons in 1885.

Of the beet-sugar industry in this State Mr. Almy says:

"During the past year large capital has been attracted toward the development of the sugar-beet industry in the United States on the Pacific Coast. Although that section of the country, with its peculiar surroundings, does not generally present the meteorological and climatic conditions necessary to secure the best results in the cultivation of the beet-root for sugar-making purposes, yet a factory was started last October, with equipment and machinery capable of reducing 350 tons of beets per diem, and has proved a great financial success. A full supply of beets, cultivated by the wheat-growers of California, kept the works fully employed, and a boom was given to the town of Watsonville. The factory consumes seven tons of lime daily in the chemical processes of extracting the sugar, which is distributed pro rata to the grower of beets free, and can be returned to the soil. Besides, the farmers averaged over $80 per acre for their beet products, while the recent report of the Agricultural Bureau estimates the returns from the total production of the five principal crops—oats, corn, rye, barley and wheat—in the United States to be less than $12 per acre as an average."

There seems to be no doubt that California is shortly to add to the numerous other products of her fertile soil that of sugar beets, in large quantities. There is no practical limit to the market for this product. Beets are exhausting to the soil, and must be grown in rotation with other crops, but that can easily be arranged, and the profit will be very much more profitable than any variety of grain, even when the seasons are most propitious for the latter crop.

We believe that experiments are now being made with sugar beet seed in Southern California, to test its adaptability to our soil. Our farmers and citizens generally who are interested in the prosperity of this section, should keep this matter to the front, in order that another may be added to our already numerous resources.

THE period of headache and repentance which succeeds the debauch set in among the Oklahoma boomers several days ago. Many of them are hastening out of the Territory as fast as they crowded into it, or faster. Their one anxiety seems to be to put as great a distance as possible between themselves and the hated scenes of their distress. The bulk of the people who join these expeditions take no account of many considerations which would weigh heavily in the minds of most men. Without stopping to inquire where they are to look for food, drink and shelter from the cold, they clamber over each other in their eagerness to locate claims, merely to find out, after a few days' experience, that the land of promise is one of promise only, and that they have exchanged a chance of living in an older community for a chance of starving or freezing to death in a new one.

OUR esteemed Democratic contemporary has gone to great labor and expense in exposing the emptiness of the Trombone's Lower California fake, but as fast as the exposure is accomplished, the work has to be done all over again. In endeavoring to convince the Spring street organ of a fact which all intelligent Angeleños know—that it is a foo-foo—the Herald has undertaken a hopeless task, which THE TIMES relinquished some time ago.

OVER a month ago THE TIMES published a detailed account of the Masac concession in Lower California, in connection with the employment of Chinese in large numbers. Now, our local contemporaries are writing up the affair as something new. Better late than never!

IF George Francis Train can prove that water is all that is necessary for subsistence, he will have solved a difficult social problem. Babies will then be less unwelcome than they now frequently are in families with limited incomes.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE OWLS.—The amateurs in Our Boys appeared to a much better house last night. The play went off with fewer hitches, and the actors were rewarded with frequent rounds of applause. They spoke their lines louder, and with much better effect than on the opening night. Most of the performers acquit themselves in a manner that would do credit to the professional stage.

Tonight Everybody's Friend will be given, with the following cast of characters: "Felix Featherly," G. A. Dobinson; "Maj. Wellington de Boots," Martin Lehman; "Frank Icebrook," C. A. Vogelsang; "Trap," H. Marston; "Mrs. Featherly," Miss Mamie Short; "Mrs. Swandown," Miss Julia Crawford; "Mrs. Wellington de Boots," Miss A. G. Lyford; "Fanny," Miss Grace Austin.

The price of admission ranges from 25 cents to $1. As the performance is for charitable purposes there should be a full house.

THE BOSTONIANS.—This great English opera company will arrive in the city direct from Chicago today, on the overland train. This is their first trip to California, and Los Angeles is the first city on the coast to get them. They will open a week's engagement at the Grand next Monday evening.

AT THE GRAND.—The ministrels will close their engagement here this evening. They will give a matinée in the afternoon.

BRIGADE INSPECTION.

Maj. C. C. Allen to Make a Complete Report.

In accordance with general orders No. 3, just issued from headquarters of the First Brigade, N. G. C., in this city, Maj. Charles C. Allen, Brigade Inspector, First Brigade, N. G. C., will at once proceed to hold a careful and thorough inspection, by companies, of all the N. G. C. comprising this brigade. He will report fully:

First—The number actually mustered into each company; the number present and absent at inspection; the condition of the arms, ordnance stores, accoutrements, clothing, and all of the State property in the custody and care of the several officers, and whether the same has been regularly accounted for, and the efficiency and discipline of both officers and men.

Second—He will inspect the books and records of the headquarters of the Seventh Infantry Regiment, and of the several companies; ascertain whether the orders from superior headquarters are read to the companies, and regularly and properly filed; the financial condition and the system of keeping accounts, both of the receipts and disbursements of State moneys, by the various commanders.

Third—He will give notice to the several commanders of the time of holding each inspection, and will issue such orders as may be necessary to the carrying out of this order.

Quien Sabe?

It is rumored that the managers of a local sheet of the faking class, which is known to be "on the ragged edge" and about to go over to that vast silent majority, the dreary list of publications rejected by the people, are trying again to work the white elephant off onto a fresh victim, in order that the sick animal may not die on the hands of the present keepers. The scheme is smooth, very smooth—and characteristic. Who is the prospective sucker?

WELL REPRESENTED.

Efforts of the Chamber of Commerce Rewarded.

The Chamber of Commerce has had a hard fight to get a representative to the Paris Exposition, but has at this late day succeeded. It has required letters and telegrams without number, but the managers feel well repaid. Eugene Germain, a well-known merchant and ex-president of the Board of Trade, will proceed at once to make up a creditable exhibit, and he will see that Los Angeles has her full show of credit as he proposes to visit the exposition. The citizens are realizing the importance of the exhibit in San Francisco and are subscribing very liberally as fast as they are made to understand the subject. "California on wheels" will reach Boston May 15th, and will do all New England before turning westward again. When it has made the grand circuit, perhaps a million of people will have seen Southern California products and received reading matter concerning this country. The Industrial Exposition having been placed in a position to stand or fall by the interest manifested by the citizens, the members of the chamber feel that they have the field for exhibitions about covered, with an exhibit at San Francisco, one in the East, one abroad and the way all paved for a grand exhibit at home.

THE RAPE FIEND.

CAPTURED AND LODGED IN THE COUNTY JAIL.

What He Says of His Fight with the Officers—Treating the Affair as a Big Joke.

About 1 o'clock yesterday Regnol, the Frenchman, who created such a commotion near the Rosedale Cemetery Thursday night, was captured in a coal bin at Mr. Brosseau's residence, No. 132 Bunker Hill avenue. After the terrific fusilade of the officers, through which he miraculously escaped unharmed, he wandered about all the rest of the night. He applied for shelter at Mr. Brosseau's house, and was refused, whereupon he retreated into the coal bin and shut the lid down.

The officers tracked him to the house, and searched in every direction, but no signs of the alleged rapist were found. Just as the search was being given up Deputy Sheriff Kemp raised the lid of the coal bin and discovered the fugitive. The Frenchman poked his six-shooter out and the lid went down with a bang on his head. Mr. Brosseau, from a window, spoke in French to the boxed-up man, and told him to come out and give himself up, which he did. He was taken to the County Jail and locked up.

A TIMES reporter saw him at the jail, and he talked freely in broken English about the wild scenes of the previous night. He does not seem to comprehend that he was resisting officers and defying the law. His only idea in the whole matter is that he was set upon by more men in buckram than Falstaff was, and had a perfect right to protect himself. He shrugged his shoulders and laughed about it. He said that he fired at the Constable who came into his house, not to kill, but to scare him away. He said he could have killed the men around his house, but did not want to do so. When they fired at him many shots he tried to kill them.

"Ze men came to me and said you must go. I said no, and zen zey shoot. I shoot back. There was many men, who shoot at me, and I make ze shot back. Ven I see my coat he burns, zen I make ze run and get away. I could shoot ze men who tried to catch me at Judge Brosseau, but he told me not, and I did not."

Upon being asked in regard to the charge that he had committed rape upon old Mrs. Simmons, he laughed, and said that it was not so. He said: "I would like a fair young lady, but ze old woman—no! I did not do it."

Regnol appears to believe that the reckless use of his six-shooter was a little pleasantry which he could indulge in with impunity.

Sheriff Aguirre was resting easily yesterday. The wound in his arm, while painful, is not serious, and he will be around again in a few days.

MASAC'S CONCESSIONS.

He Denies the Story That They Will Be Sold.

Théophile Masac, principal stockholder in the Lower California Mining Company, who was in this city yesterday, denies the correctness of the Associated Press dispatch from San Diego, published Thursday, in which it was represented that a sale of the company's concession from the Mexican Government was about to be consummated with the Chinese Six Companies. Mr. Masac, however, admits that negotiations are pending for the securing of a force of Chinese laborers to work his company's mines, as Mexican miners cannot be had in sufficient numbers. He says the managers of the Chinese Six Companies positively refused to furnish laborers to go to Lower California unless the companies were given representation in the board of directors of the mining company, their object being to take a hand in the management and to share in the profits, and he further admits that the pending negotiations look to giving the Chinese bosses three out of the seven members of the board. Masac was particular to deny that any interest in the concession had been or would be sold to the Chinese, as such sale could not be made without the previous consent of the Mexican Government, but admitted, as before stated, that a sale of stock to them was in contemplation. The Chinese laborers whom it is desired to engage are California miners who have been thrown out of employment in the hydraulic mining regions of this State by the anti-débris law recently passed by the Legislature.

New Suits.

A suit for an injunction was begun yesterday by Charles Schatte, who seeks to stop the building of the First-street viaduct. The suit is brought against the city authorities and the California Bridge Company. The plaintiff alleges that he owns property fronting on the line of the proposed viaduct; that it will damage his property, and he wishes the restraining order to remain in force until the damages are ascertained and assessed.

Suit was begun yesterday by Catherine Bettner vs. W. P. Tibbett et al., to foreclose a mortgage and recover judgment on a promissory note for $725 secured by it.

W. S. Greene began suit yesterday against Mrs. R. N. Clifford and C. S. Sylvester, to recover judgment for $725, alleged to be due for work done by plaintiff.

WASHINGTON.

Frank Palmer the Winning Horse.

Harrison Said to Have Asked Him to Be Public Printer.

The New British Minister Presents His Credentials.

The Interstate Commerce Commission Asking Awkward Questions About Railways Issuing Passes--Notes.

By Telegraph to The Times.

CHICAGO, May 3.—[By the Associated Press.] The Times' Washington special asserts that the President tonight sent a telegram to Chicago, asking Frank Palmer if he would accept the office of Public Printer.

As Palmer lives in a suburban town, the message will not be delivered until morning.

If he accepts, the special asserts, the appointment, together with that of Capt. Meredith, as Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, will be announced tomorrow.

RAILWAY PASSES.

The Interstate Commission Wants to Know About Their Issue.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—[By the Associated Press.] In response to summons of the Interstate Commerce Commission, representatives of a number of eastern roads appeared before the commission today and explained the methods of giving out passes and to whom they were given.

Representatives of most of the roads submitted lists of passes given by the roads, with accompanying information and in some cases the reasons for granting the passes.

The Maine Central Railroad representative presented an argument taking exceptions to the jurisdiction of the commission in calling for specific classes of passes. The representative of the New York Central road presented an argument setting forth that his company does business alone in the State of New York, has issued many passes to persons in that State, has not issued any for the purpose of securing business, and submits that the commission may not require any further answer.

Counsel for the Pennsylvania Railroad explained the lists of passes, and presented circulars of the company regulating the issuance of passes in conformity with its understanding of the Interstate Act.

Technical points were raised by several of the gentlemen representing the roads regarding the jurisdiction of the commission, etc., and the commission will at some future time hear arguments from them.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The New British Minister Presents His Credentials.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—[By the Associated Press.] Blaine appeared at the State Department this morning, showing no traces of his recent illness. The British Minister, Pauncefote, presented himself and was introduced to Blaine, who at once conducted him to the White House and presented him to the President. The usual compliments were exchanged.

Sir Julian presented his credentials, and, addressing the President, gave expression to a feeling of utmost good will and amity on the part of his Government and himself personally toward the United States, and expressed the belief that this country fully reciprocated the feeling, and that he would meet with justice and a spirit of conciliation.

President Harrison replied briefly, reciprocating the sentiments as to the good will and amity expressed by the new Minister, and especially expressing his pleasure that the choice of the Queen for Minister to this country had fallen upon a man so admirably suited for the place as Sir Julian.

SHOCKING AFFAIR.

A Crowded Coach Struck by a Railway Train.

PHILADELPHIA, May 3.—A coach containing 11 persons was struck by a train on the Pennsylvana road this morning. F. K. Womrath and James Dungan were killed and three others injured. Several of the occupants of the coach were local politicians. They were on the way home from a jollification. Womrath was formerly a member of the City Council. Dungan was 65 years old. Half a dozen are more or less seriously injured.

The accident occurred shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. The parties in it were members of the Masonic fraternity and were returning to this city from a visit to Dr. Boyer of Bridesburg. Worshipful Master of the lodge, to which they belong. Howard Gibbs, one of the injured, did not belong to the party, but had been overtaken on the road and allowed to ride with the driver. The brief delay caused by taking on this extra passenger undoubtedl yhad much to do with the calamity which followed. The night was hazy, rendering objects indistinct, and it is supposed the freight train approached the crossing unperceived by those in the coach.

The engineer, when he saw what had happened, stopped the train as soon as possible. Stretched upon the cow-catcher, bruised, bleeding and insensible, was Johnson, the colored driver. In the square below the crossing the horses were found dead and gashed to pieces, lying close together. The force of the blow must have been terrible, for the shoes were torn from the front feet of one of the horses, and the other had a leg cut off close to the trunk.

Further up the track the wagon, dashed to tinderwood, was discovered in a heap, and a few feet away from it were the bodies of Wombrath and Dungan. Close to them lay their fellow-passengers Smith and Willus, who were quite senseless, but the others, with the exception of Dr. Hale and Meyers, were groaning pitifully. Two of the injured, Samuel Smith, wholesafe liquor merchant, and Frank Wilgus, a druggist, are expected to die. The others injured, five in all, are reported to be getting along comfortably.

LYDECKER'S CASE.

HIS SENTENCE CONFIRMED BY THE PRESIDENT.

Commander Book Also Has a Taste of Court-martial Justice, and Secretary Tracy Says It Serves Him Right.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—[By the Associated Press.] The sentence of the general court-martial in the case of Maj. Lydecker of the Corps of Engineers, who was tried on charges arising out of the aqueduct tunnel frauds, was made public this afternoon, and is as follows:

"To forfeit to the United States $100 per month of his pay for nine months, and to be reprimanded in the orders. The court is thus lenient in view of the evidence before it that in spaces so confined as those above the arch in the tunnel it was almost impossible to secure thoroughly good work under the contract system imposed by law."

President Harrison, in approving the sentence, says: "The graveness of the offense of this officer was neglect of a very high and important duty. It is not very important from a military standpoint whether pecuniary loss did or did not result to the Government, but that very great loss and inconvenience have been inflicted upon the community by the delays which have resulted from the failure to discover prominently the faulty and fraudulent character of the work is apparent. The suggestion that the strictest and most faithful supervision of the progress of such work is powerless to detect and correct the shams which are practiced by contractors, in this case is a discredit to the engineering profession and entirely inadmissible."

COMMANDER BOOK'S SENTENCE.

Secretary Tracy has approved the findings and sentence of the court-martial in the case of Lieutenant Commander George Book, who was charged with absenting himself from his command without leave. He commanded the Pinta, and left her at Sitka, Alaska, and came to Washington to induce the Navy Department to authorize repairs necessary to make the vessel serviceable. The Court found him guilty of the charges, and as approved he stands sentenced to be suspended for two years from rank and duty on furlough pay, and to retain his present number on the list of lieutenant commanders during that time.

An examination of the other eight cases showed them also filled with cigars, all of which were seized. The seizure amounted in value to about $1000.

FRESNO, May 3.—[By the Associated Press.] Last July the Hildreth stage was robbed of an ingot of gold amalgam, valued at $8000. The messenger, J. R. Nicholson, was arrested as the accomplice of James Ryan in the robbery, but the evidence not being sufficient to convict them, they were released on bail. Bob Stewart (colored) found the nugget where it was hidden last month, broke it up and carried it to Mexico. Yesterday Stewart was arrested at Nogales, Ariz., with some of the gold in his possession. John Boyd and Francis Durso, who aided his flight, were arrested here. The Wells-Fargo officers are confident of convicting Nicholson and Ryan.

Treasurer Fessenden at San Francisco—What He Says.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—[By the Associated Press.] Samuel Fessenden of Sandwich, Mass., who was mentioned in the Boston Traveller's Sandwich special of yesterday as having disappeared two weeks ago, is in this city, and is surprised at the rumors published concerning himself. Mr. Fessenden, who is treasurer of the Cape Cod Canal Company, states that his departure and his present whereabouts were known to the company at time of the publication of the special and that the rumors concerning him are false; that he has never acted in the capacity of treasurer of the Unitarian Church of Sandwich, nor has he at any time had in his possession funds belonging to the Episcopal Church. His family has been on this coast since last January. He states that it was his intention to return to Boston about the last of this month, but he may now return at an earlier date.

The stairway was in flames, but District Engineer Dougherty and several men of Hook and Ladder No. 2 made their way up at the imminent risk of their lives. They found Ah Hoy, Ching Quing and Ching Ong lying on the floor senseless. They were at once removed to the receiving hospital and eventually restored to consciousness. One of the Chinese was hurt about the body, but not seriously. The loss by the fire amounted to $3000; partly insured.

INDIAN TALK.

Two Stories About the San Carlos Reservation.

There has been a good deal of wild talk about an outbreak on the San Carlos reservation during the past few days. A TIMES reporter visited army headquarters yesterday at the corner of Spring and Second streets, and learned that the whole thing is a canard. Some irresponsible Examiner correspondent at Tombstone started the story, and as near as can be learned the same fellow has sprung this chestnut about a dozen times during the past three years. Col. Grierson, commander of the Department of Arizona, has received no information showing that a single Indian has left the reservation, and is confident that the prospect for an outbreak at the present time is exceedingly slim.

"OFF HIS BASE."

Abe Lewin Lately Under Examination for Insanity.

Abe Lewin, who recently attempted to establish himself in business at Avalon, Catalina Island, has had a good deal of trouble, and it mostly comes from his over-excitability, as he terms it. A warrant was sworn out for him a few days ago on the charge of insanity and Constable John C. Cline made a trip to the island and brought him back. He was kept in jail over night and arraigned before a commission of lunacy the next day. The commissioners after a thorough examination were unable to say that Lewin should be committed to either Stockton or Napa Asylum, but they recommended that he be placed at the Sisters' Hospital for a week, to see whether he might not in that time show some improvement.

Lewin has written a long, rambling and incoherent account of his tribulations, which he sends to THE TIMES with a request for publication. He heads his communication "The queer things we see and the queer things we do—it's quite English, you know," and then rambles off as follows:

"On Sunday, the 28th of April, quite a serious accident happened to our Mr. Abe Lewin, which did result to his benefit, and not to his disgrace. Stationed at his destination, Avalon, Catalina Island, to represent the interests of the Los Angeles newspapers, two weeks ago. Not having many friends on the Island, had to defend himself alone. The people and the world were against him, but, not fearing the people and the world, he took steps and action in public life. He was quite successful in this attempt, but jealousy and some misfortune were quite asleep—through influence of money and false statements—an accident happened which could have been quite fatal."

He then describes how he was taken in charge by Officer Cline last Sunday and brought up on the steamer, adding this by way of incident:

"After I had seen the valuable document [the warrant] I told him to sit by my side, and we conversed on social topics. Afterwards I left J. C. Cline in conversation with ladies on the boat, and must say John is eloquent and sociable, and helped me pass the time till my arrival in Los Angeles."

He then describes, quite circumstantially, his confinement in jail, saying: "I was nicely quartered the first night—I passed a few hours of rest and had a larger appetite than for breakfast in the morning—they had a fine breakfast prepared for me, and I thoroughly enjoyed the same. I then rested till dinner-time and then ate dinner with the appetite left from breakfast. At 1 o'clock I grew lonesome and impatient. I induced Capt. Darcy to bring me before the commissioners. I was then told not to be impatient, that J. C. Cline would be there in fifteen minutes to take me before the commissioners. The commissioners included Dr. Arend, Dr. Wermingk, and Dr. Herschkovitz of San Bernardino. There were not enough doctors in the city of Los Angeles to tend the case."

Lewin continues that after the commissioners had asked him a lot of irrelevant questions, they concluded that there was not enough the matter with him to send him to an insane asylum, but they would simply commit him to the Sisters' Hospital for one or two weeks to let him get quieted down.

There is no question but that Lewin's mind is considerably disturbed, but perhaps quiet and good nursing will restore him. He is not over 23 or 24 years old, and seems to be a man of good education, writing what would be termed an elegant business hand. He has relatives in Los Angeles who have lived here many years and are highly respected, and he himself has spent several years in this city.

ARRESTED LAST NIGHT.

Lewin was last night arrested by Deputy Sheriff J. C. Cline and booked at the County Jail as John Doe, and charged with insanity. It is said that he attempted to do bodily harm to his brother, in his place of business.

TO SUCCEED MR. BENEDICT.

Gen. F. W. Palmer of Illinois for Public Printer.

[By Telegraph to the New York Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Leading Illinoisans have good reason to think tonight that the appointment of Public Printer will go to their State. It will not be Capt. Meredith, who was the candidate put forward by the Congressional delegation, but in all probability will be Gen. F. W. Palmer, ex-postmaster of Chicago. Capt. Meredith was ruled out some time ago, and he is to be made Superintendent of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving. Gen. Palmer, it is stated, was first suggested to the President by persons closely identified with his Administration. Inquiry was made which convinced Gen. Harrison that he was the man for Public Printer. The Illinois Senators were consulted, and with Capt. Meredith out of the way, they felt free to indorse another man. Today Senator Farwell telegraphed from Chicago asking the appointment of Gen. Palmer, while Senator Cullom personally urged the same thing. The President did not say he would appoint Palmer, but he spoke so highly of the Illinois man that no doubt was left in the minds of those with whom he talked that his intentions were to make Gen. Palmer Public Printer. Some reasons are said to exist for delaying the appointment for a few days, and this encourages a few of the other candidates to keep up their efforts, under the impression that the matter is still open.

Gen. Palmer is a native of Chautauqua county, N.Y., and learned the printer's and bookbinder's trade there. He moved to Iowa in early life, edited a paper at Dubuque and was for six years State Printer. He served in the war, and after returning to private life became the proprietor of the Des Moines Register. He represented the capital district in Congress for two terms. Then he sold his paper to the Clarksons and moved to Chicago, where he became editor of the Inter Ocean. This newspaper he gave up to become postmaster. He was reappointed by President Arthur. His removal was one of the first acts of President Cleveland. Since retiring from the postoffice Gen. Palmer has given his time mostly to an industrial paper. He is said to be a man of great executive ability. He was not a candidate for any office, and no papers have been filed in his behalf for Public Printer.

[A dispatch printed elsewhere in today's TIMES states that Palmer has been tendered the position.]

THAT OMINOUS SANTA FE ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Uneasy is the Head That Wears a Railroad Crown—The Santa Fe Company Return to the Old Pullman Rates.

The election of officers in the Santa Fé Company will take place on the 9th inst., and the boys are considerably worked up for the reason that they do not know what may drop; they remember the changes that have taken place during the past few months.

S. B. Hynes relieved Maj. Wilkins Thursday, and the latter departed Thursday night for Guaymas, Mexico, where he will take charge of the freight and passenger business of the Santa Fé's roads in Mexico.

The Santa Fé Company has decided to go back to the old Pullman rates on second-class sleepers, which were cut down to $1.50 to Kansas City and $2.50 to Chicago. The rates after the 14th will be $3 to Kansas City and $4 to Chicago.

There has been a little stampede in the Santa Fé's auditing office during the past month. Several clerks have resigned. One of them gave up because she intends to marry, and the others because they do not like the men over them. The auditor's office is one of the most trying offices in the building.

General Manager Dan McCool has fallen down on his daily overland train scheme. It was intended to put on two overland trains daily, but there is not sufficient travel at present, and the company will simply run one train from Los Angeles and one from San Francisco. Mr. McCool left for San Diego yesterday.

The board asks for one week's further time on the protest of O. W. Childs and others against the proposed opening of Ward street.

A CHINESE FAKE.

Ah Gowe Thinks He is On the Track of a Poisoning Case.

Ah Gowe and Wong Kee, two Chinese, came into the City Prison late last night, armed with a letter from District Attorney Kelly and a package of rice. The letter stated that the Chinamen knew something about a case of poisoning in Chinatown, and asked Chief Burns to give them a warrant for the arrest of the offender. Capt. Harris was at the desk, and he refused to comply with the request, as he did not take any stock in the Chinese affidavit. The Chinese left, after repeatedly requesting the warrant, and felt sheepish, a sarcastic smile spreading over their burnished countenances.

A TIMES reporter "pumped" the two, and the following is what was made out of their pigeon English. It appears that Ah Gowe keeps a grocery store on the east side of the Plaza, and also furnishes laborers. Won Yeng is one of his "slaves." They had some altercation, but what it was could not be found out, but nevertheless Ah Gowe accused him of putting poison in a bag of rice. He says that one man is now very sick and almost dead, and there are five more Chinese sick from eating the rice, as it is alleged. The two were rather scary, and told Capt. Harris that he might get away if not arrested immediately.

The reporter went down to Chinatown and noticed Ah Gow going from one place to another, and amid lottery tickets and Chinese herbs and dried fish holding short and secret conversations with the owners of the places. It is not probable that a warrant will be issued.

PASADENA, May 3.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Several members of the Boulevard Committee of the Board of Trade and a representative body of citizens met for an informal business talk this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

C. C. Brown, a member of the committee, suggested that they call on the Board of Supervisors and tell them the wish of the citizens, which is a modification of the former demand.

F. H. Lockwood stated to the gathering, by way of information, the determination on the part of the people of South Pasadena to plant trees alongside of all their streets.

On motion of W. U. Masters, the committee decided to go to Los Angeles on Monday to confer with the Board of Supervisors on the matter. The home team will be strengthened by the recruits from South Pasadena and East Los Angeles. The speaker for the Pasadena committee will be W. U. Masters.

JUSTICE WANTED.

The good people of South Pasadena have been for some time daily clamoring for a justice of the peace. In order to obtain for the town a man to deal out justice to the offending, the district must be divided. With that object in view a delegation will wait on the Board of Supervisors on Monday next. At present this suburb is confined in the Pasadena district, and last fall two justices were elected, one of whom is located at Lamanda Park.

LOCAL MENTION.

The Cross people are still hard at work trying to gain entrance through the alley for the rapid transit railroad. Up to today about 7000 feet have been obtained, leaving over 2000 feet yet to be secured.

The New England Society met this evening in Wooster Hall and spent a most enjoyable time. The attendance was fair.

Rev. J. Spencer Kennard of Chicago, who has been conducting a series of revival meetings at the Baptist Church during the past three weeks, closed his labors this evening.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The City Board of Trustees will convene in regular session at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning and transact much important business. The contract for sprinkling the streets for the ensuing year will be awarded to W. J. Goss at $3.19 per cart, and seven carts to run daily, of 10 hours' service, when so ordered by the chairman of the Street Committee. The street-lighting project is also under way, and with the work already done on the sewers, a good report can be expected from the Street Committee. It is earnestly hoped the board will take up the question of the purchase of a steam fire engine, the former proposition of the Silsby Company having been canceled. The purchase of a brick building in the rear of the Carlton Hotel for municipal purposes, which has been hanging fire for a week, will be considered and action taken. Matters of minor importance will also be taken up.

HERE AND THERE.

The sale of property for delinquent taxes is over. Taxes to the amount of $2600 were sold to outside parties, and $1200 in taxes reverted back to the city.

Two lady candidates were immersed at the Baptist Church this evening, and afterward received into the fellowship of the church and people.

The army worm is working a full share of damage on his itinerant course, and unsightly rose bushes and devastated potato patches are shown as a result of his ravages. Effectual means are being taken by many property-owners to drive away the pest.

CONGREGATIONAL MATTERS.

The third annual gathering of the Congregational churches of the Southern California Association meets in this city, at the Congregational Church on California street, on Tuesday evening, May 14th. Over fifty churches will be represented, comprising an attendance of about 150 delegates. The session lasts three days, during which time some very excellently-prepared papers will be read.

The council called for the purpose of organizing a Congregational church in North Pasadena met yesterday at 3 p.m. in Thomas's Hall, and, after listening to the statements of those personally interested in the movement and considering their confession of faith and covenant, voted to proceed to services of recognition and fellowship. In the evening a large number of the friends of the new enterprise, embracing many from the First Congregational Church of this city, assembled for these services, which were deeply impressive. The Rev. Dr. Hutchins of Los Angeles made a felicitous address to the church, and the Rev. D. D. Hill gave in well chosen and tender words the right hand of fellowship, and presented on behalf of the mother church to this first daughter a beautiful communion set. Rev. Mr. Wells then offered the prayer of consecration, after which the Lord's Supper was administered. Seventeen persons were received to membership. The Rev. Mr. Staats officiates as their pastor.

CONDENSED ITEMS.

Cherries from the North have already begun to make their appearance at the fruit stands and upon the tables of those who are fixed well enough financially.

Mrs. S. S. Lightfoot tenders a reception tomorrow evening to the teachers of South Pasadena and Lincoln Park at the South Pasadena Hotel. An excellent programme of vocal and instrumental music has been arranged.

Pasadena Lodge No. 324 of Odd Fellows has passed a series of resolutions of respect to its late brother, C. C. Cheney.

NOT A PIMPLE ON HIM NOW.

Bad with Eczema—Hair All Gone—Scalp Covered with Eruptions—Thought His Hair Would Never Grow—Cured by Cuticura Remedies—Hair Splendid and not a Pimple on Him.

I cannot say enough in praise of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctor said was scald head, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and, I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the most speedy, economical and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

MRS. M. E. WOODSUM, Norway, Me.

A Fever Sore Eight Years Cured.

I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured by using the CUTICURA REMEDIES, of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness of fever eight years ago. He was so bad he was fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but is happy to say he is now entirely well,—sound as a dollar. He requests me to use his name, which is H. H. CASON, merchant of this place.

JOHN V. MINOR, Druggist, Gainsboro, Tenn.

Severe Scalp Disease Cured.

A few weeks ago my wife suffered very much from a cutaneous disease of the scalp, and received no relief from the various remedies she used until she tried CUTICURA. The disease promptly yielded to this treatment, and in a short while she was entirely well. There has been no return of the disease, and CUTICURA ranks No. 1 in our estimation for diseases of the skin.

Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh.

Cure Begins from First Application, and is Rapid, Radical and Permanent.

It is the mucous membrane, that wonderful semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, trammeling the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, rotting the breath, and killing the refined pleasures of taste. Insidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold in the head, it assaults the membranous lining and envelops the bones, eating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation, sloughing and other dangerous symptoms. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleviations are simply procrastinated sufferings. SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, by Inhalation and by Internal administration, rarely fails; even when the disease has made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell and taste have been recovered, and the disease thoroughly driven out.

Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh

Consists of one bottle of RADICAL CURE, one box CATARRHAL SOLVENT and one IMPROVED INHALER, neatly wrapped in one package, with full directions; price $1. Sold everywhere. POTTER DRUG & CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston.

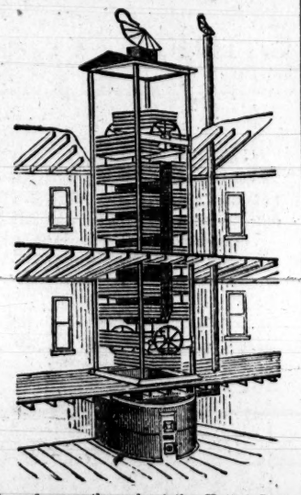
-:- The Williams Fruit Evaporator -:-



Is used more throughout the United States than any machine made. It will evaporate more fruit for the amount of tray surface with less labor than any other machine. Therefore it is the most economical and cheapest. Hundreds of them are in use throughout the Northern States for apples, while in the peach district in the Southern States there are ten to one of any other machine made. They are pronounced by those who use them, and have used others in connection, to be the only practical machine. Last year, 1888, seven were bought by different parties in Ventura county, this State, the same parties owning machines, gave preference to the Williams, as others have done before them. I have a carload of these machines on hand now, but as there are several parties about purchasing now, as there will be more orders than I have machines now to fill, some orders will have to be filled at the factory, therefore send in your orders early. ANNUAL TRADE NUMBER,

—CONTAINING—

A COMPLETE RLVIEW OF THE YEAR.

Fifty-six Large Pages. Equivalent to a Two Hundred Page Book.

The Annual Trade Number of THE TIMES, now ready, is the most complete and interesting publication of that character ever published in Los Angeles.

NOTABLE FEATURES—It contains a business review of the year, embracing a great mass of valuable facts bearing on the city and county; a thorough exposition of our natural resources—mineral, vegetable, commercial and climatic; a review of the rise and progress of the boom, with solid proofs that the country is now in better condition than it was during the height of the real-estate excitement; a carefully compiled exposition of the varied inducements which Southern California offers to the health-seeker, the home-seeker and the tourist, besides a number of interesting and valuable special articles on pertinent subjects. It contains more solid information about the country than could be crowded into the compass of a hundred long letters, and for a few cents and the expenditure of a few minutes' time in writing the address you can send a friend more information than you could write in a month, even if you had all the facts at hand. For instance, you can supply ten families in the frozen East with information that may lead them to join the army of pilgrims to Southern California, to their own and this country's advantage. Thus, whether viewed from the standpoint of friendship or self-interest, it will be seen that no better use can be made of a dollar than by purchasing the new ten copies of the great Annual Trade Number of THE TIMES. Not one-tenth of the pleasure can be bestowed in any other way for the same amount of money.

DAILY REMINDER OF NOTABLE EVENTS IN THE PAST.

John James Audubon—Destruction of the Indian Empire—"The Beggars' Opera"—Napoleon at Elba—The Income Provided by the Powers.

It is twenty-eight years ago today since the great naturalist, John James Audubon, closed his eminently useful career. An enthusiast in the study of natural science, he devoted years of labor to his

"BIRDS OF AMERICA."

His first volume was published in 1830, with 99 birds and 100 plates, his birds being life-size and color. The kings of England and France placed their names at the head of his subscription list. He was made a Fellow of the Royal Society of London and a member of the Natural History Society of Paris. His second volume appeared in 1824. People subscribed for the "Birds of America" with a view to posterity, as men plant trees. One nobleman in London remarked to Audubon as he wrote his name on the list: "I may not live to see the work finished, but my children will." The naturalist, though a man of hope, was depressed by this remark, but he comforted himself with his reliance on Providence. He lived to complete his work on the birds, and was engaged in another on the "Quadrupeds of America" at the time of his death, at his home near New York, January 27, 1851.

DESTRUCTION OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE.

On May 4th, 1799, the Indian Empire of Hyder Alli was destroyed by the capture of Seringapatam and the death of his son, the Sultan Tippoo Sahib. The storming of the great fortress by the British troops took place in broad day, Gen. Sir David Baird leading one of the storming parties in person, and being the first man after the forlorn hope to reach the top of the breach. Here, to his surprise, he found a second ditch within, full of water. The fortunate discovery of some workmen's scaffolding enabled him to cross the ditch, after which all that remained was simply a little hard fighting. The body of Tippoo Sahib was afterwards taken from under a heap of slain. His desperate courage was due to the fact that he had just ordered the murder of 12 British soldiers, and so despaired of obtaining quarter in the event of his own defeat. Curiously enough, 15 years before, Baird had suffered a long and cruel captivity under Tippoo's father. His extreme hardships and sufferings did not, however, cause him to loose heart or hope of a release.

"THE BEGGARS' OPERA."

Today recalls one of the most curious episodes in the history of the stage. In the spring and early summer of 1728, the Beggars' Opera of Gay had its unparalleled run of 62 nights in the Theater of Lincoln Inn Fields. The poet was then in his 40th year, and had hitherto achieved only moderate successes. The author received the entire receipts of the third, sixth, ninth and fifteenth nights, aggregating nearly $3500—a handsome sum considering the value of money at that time. The idea of a play with malefactors among the characters was suggested to Gay by Swift in the question, "What an odd, pretty sort of a thing a Newgate pastoral would be?" The King and royal family came to see the play on the twenty-first night. The part of "Polly" was first personated by Miss Lavinia Fenton, who was the first in a long list of actresses who have captivated the hearts of the gilded youth who delight in such conquests. The "Duke of Bolton" was enslaved by "Polly's" beauty, and as he had long lived apart from his wife, he persuaded Miss Fenton to live with him. On the death of his wife the "Duke" married her, several children being the fruit of the union. As all, however, were born previous to her marriage, the "Duke" died without legitimate issue, and the title became extinct at his decease. It was on May 4, 1728, that "Polly" (Miss Fenton) had a benefit, which proved a brilliant success. So great was the sum realized by the manager, Mr. Rich, on the Beggars' Opera that the wags declared it had made Rich gay and Gay rich.

NAPOLEON AT ELBA.

It was on May 4, 1814, that Napoleon took possession of the Island of Elba, which had been ceded to him by the general agreement of the powers. By the provisions of the treaty, the deposed Emperor was to have an income of £2,000,000 a year, and a like sum was to be divided between his brothers and sisters. Parma and Placentia became the dowry of the Empress Marie Louise and the little King of Rome. Napoleon accepted everything, not without irritation and painful recollections of the past. "If they had shown courage for two hours longer, I might have saved France," he repeated. For twenty-five years the men who had successively ruled France promised one after the other to save her. They had dragged her through the massacres of the Reign of Terror, the degradations of the Directory, and the pomp of the Empire, from battle-field to battle-field. In the midst of glory and bloodshed, she had driven back and then conquered Europe: and, after holding in her hands the history of the world, she was now vanquished and exhausted, calling aloud for peace at any price, and for order and liberty. The Emperor Napoleon was conquered like her, and more than her, and he conceived the idea of escaping from the humiliations and griefs which nations endure with courage, being certain of existence at least.

DOINGS AT SAN PEDRO.

Allegations of Illegal Pilot Charges —"Gov. Boruck."

The following letter has been received by THE TIMES from Capt. Wm. McKenzie, of the ship Caldera, lately in port at San Pedro. It is published on account of the gravity of the charges contained, which will be further investigated:

SAN PEDRO, April, 1889.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] Will you kindly allow me space enough in your valuable paper to expose the impositions upon foreign ships coming to San Pedro harbor, by Dave Wildt, pilot, and his side partner, Jos. W. Hellman; the latter it appears to me, being backed by Gov. Boruck.

On my approaching San Pedro from New Castle, New South Wales, on the 27th day of February, 1889, I was boarded by D. Wildt and informed by him that he was a licensed pilot, and that pilotage at this port was compulsory, and that if I did not employ him I would have to pay half pilotage, $4 per (ship's draft) foot. I had instructions from my owners not to employ a pilot, and on looking at my chart, I saw that San Pedro Bay was an open roadstead, and every shipmaster will inform you that no open roadstead in America or Europe has compulsory pilotage. I therefore at once refused Wildt's services, and took my own ship to the anchorage. Two days after my arrival, James W. Hellman, who calls himself pilot agent, presented me with a bill of $88 for services not rendered by D. Wildt, pilot. He also showed me a letter signed by Gov. Boruck, saying that foreign ships that refused to take a pilot would have to pay $4 per foot draft, and those that employed him would have to pay $8 per foot. I paid no attention to this letter, and refused to pay the bill, as San Pedro, up to March 10th, was not a port that the law allowed compulsory pilotage; even now it has no pilot commissioners or practical pilots. I told Hellman to libel my ship for the amount if he felt so disposed, but to do so at once and not detain the ship after she had discharged her cago. He left the matter lay in abeyance until I was ready to sail, and then detained the ship with a libel, and put me to the expense of the delay as well as annoyance of giving security for the amount, which, of course, is to be left to the courts for settlement. The previous cases of the kind have never been pushed to final settlement, which is conclusive evidence that Hellman & Boruck only get money under false pretenses, and that this port is not a legalized compulsory pilotage port, but an open roadstead. While I have been here the English bark Irish was presented by Hellman with a bill of $75 for pilotage, which he compromised for $25. He also piloted in the English bark Earl Dunraven for $3 per foot, though he claimed the law allowed him $8 per foot. This man Wildt is not competent to sail a ship. His whole forte is to board ships and tell them the direction to take, and to inform them that pilotage at San Pedro is compulsory, when it is not, and then let Hellman, with his letters from Gov. Boruck, bulldoze the captains into paying the bills. This, Mr. Editor, is one reason why all foreign ships avoid San Pedro when they can possibly do so, and when they do come to the port charge more for freight than they do when going to San Francisco or San Diego. Yours respectfully,

WILLIAM MCKENZIE,
Master Ship Caldera.

P.S.—I will refer you to Messrs. I. F. Whitney & Co., 15 State street, New York city, our agents, who will vouch for my statement in regard to above. WILLIAM MCKENZIE.

CATARRH

Throat Diseases,

And all the various diseases of the Head, Throat and Chest,

Together with diseases of the Eye, Ear and Heart, also diseases of females, successfully treated by

M. HILTON WILLIAMS,

M. D., M. C. P. S. O.,

Office, Hollenbeck Block, corner Second and Spring streets, Los Angeles, Cal.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved medical inhalations and the Compound Oxygen treatment, which has such a world-wide reputation in lung and nervous affections.

We take pleasure in announcing to the public that we combine the Compound Oxygen Treatment with our system of practice in the cure of asthma, bronchitis, consumption, dyspepsia, insomnia, sore throat, catarrh, rheumatism and nervous prostration.

The testimonials given below are very fair samples as to the time required for effecting cures in these troublesome cases:

LOS ANGELES, CAL., Nov. 14, 1888.

This is to certify that I had been afflicted with asthma and emphysima of the lungs for about 24 years. My disease was contracted in the army. I had tried almost every known remedy, both here and in the East, but nothing ever gave me permanent relief until I tried Dr. Williams's Compound Oxygen and other remedies. It is only about one month since I began the treatment, and already I feel like another man. I was so bad that for days I could hardly breathe, but I do positively feel that I am cured. The difficulty of breathing has been entirely removed, and I feel as well as I ever did in every respect.

JOHN W HOYT.
Employe City Water Works,
265 Bellevue Avenue, Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16, 1888.

It is a source of gratification to me to be able to testify to the very satisfactory cure Dr. M. Hilton Williams has effected in my case with his Compound Oxygen and other inhalations. After suffering several years with catarrh of the head and throat, also bronchitis, which caused a very aggravating cough, I applied to Dr. Williams, who effected an entire cure in just two months from the time I began the treatment. I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Williams as a Christian gentleman and a conscientious and skillful physician, whose cures seem almost marvelous in cases of consumption, asthma, bronchitis and catarrh.

MRS. L. A. THURSTON,
1422 Temple st., Los Angeles, Cal.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success. The very best references from those already cured.

CONSULTATION FREE.

Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at my office for consultation and examination, but, if impossible to do so, can write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions. Address
